19 Killed When Ships Collide Off New York

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Nineteen crewmen of a Norwegian tanker are dead or missing from a Thanksgiving Day tragedy in which their vessel was sliced in two by an Israeli luxury liner heading out on a carefree Caribbean cruise.

The collision occurred 18 miles off the New Jersey Coast shortly after 2 a.m. Thursday in dense fog.

The stern quarter of the tanker sank in the pall of darkness and fog. Water poured into the liner's bow compartments, which were sealed off.

An air-sea rescue operation was quickly put in motion.

Clad variously in nightdress or ballroom attire, many of the cruise liner's 616 passengers raced to decks to watch through the mist.

Eventually, 24 of the tanker's 43-member crew were snatched from the seas, from swamped lifeboats and from the barely floating forward section of the vessel. Among them was a stewardess — the lone woman aboard — and the tanker's captain.

Some of the men saved from the sea were only partially clad. They were oil-smeared, blue with cold and in some cases insensible from shock.

As time wore on through a gray dawn, the Atlantic yielded 13 bodies. A massive daylong search of the area finally was called off at sundown without any trace of six men still missing.

The vessels involved were the $20-million liner Shalom, pride of the Israeli merchant fleet and its seven-months-old flagship, and the 12,723-ton Norwegian tanker Stolt Dagali.

The 629-foot-long, 25,320-ton Shalom had sailed from New York at 11:15 the night before, after a round of gay farewell parties on what was to have been a leisurely 10-day cruise to the West Indies.

Aboard the sparkling white ship were 1,076 persons. They included crew members and a host of entertainers. No one suffered an injury of any consequence, it was reported.

The tanker, whose home port is Oslo, was inbound for Newark, N.J., on a voyage from Philadelphia. Her tanks were 80 per cent filled with a cargo of vegetable oil.

As the two plowed through the foggy murk on what was to be a collision course, neither apparently had any impending sense of danger even though both were equipped with radar.

Their captains later declined to comment on circumstances preceding the collision. Suddenly the rending crash occurred, with the Shalom's bow slicing into the tanker.

Figures in the Future That Americans Will Junk Houses When They Get Tired of 'em

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Tired of your old house? Why not junk it, and buy a new one — just as you do with your old car?

In the future that's just what Americans will do, according to a finance expert.

"The field is changing so swiftly — there are so many new innovations — that a house is out of date in 25 years," said Jack H. McDonald.

"You should be able to tear it down and rebuild it, or discard it as you do an old car now. That day is coming, just as soon as we can find a way to reduce building material costs."

McDonald, 54, son of a Pratt, Kan., railroad engineer, migrated west as a youth and entered the finance field. Today he is president of the San Diego Imperial Corp., the nation's fourth largest savings and loan holding company. It has assets of nearly $900 million.

Experience gained in making thousands of home loans has made McDonald an authority on America's building trends. He says the husband usually has the least influence of anyone in the family on deciding on the nature of its housing.

"Mom is still calling the shots in American home building. Then come the kids. And then, only then, it's Pop. Sometimes even old Rover has as much to say as father."

Cooler Weather for Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas should get extremely mild weather today, but cooler temperatures Saturday, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

The mild weather will come as a warm front moves northward out of the state. A low pressure system should move into Arkansas Saturday, bringing a slight cooling trend, the bureau said.

Rain is predicted in all sections of the state through Saturday.

The bureau said overnight low readings should range from near 50 degrees north to the 60s south, following daytime readings in the low 60s north to low 70s south.

Skies will be mostly cloudy Saturday as the weather turns cooler, the bureau said.

High temperatures Thursday ranged from 52 degrees at Walnut Ridge to 70 degrees at El Dorado. Overnight low readings ranged from 41 degrees at Fayetteville to 62 degrees at El Dorado.

Holiday Death Toll Likely to Set New High

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's Thanksgiving weekend traffic death rate slackened today after Thursday's heavy highway mortality. Since 6 p.m. (local time), Wednesday, the traffic toll reached 207.

With the frequency of fatalities far less than on Thanksgiving Day, the rate of deaths slid down the scale to less than for the first nine months of this year when it averaged 126 a day.

Traffic experts said that unpleasant driving weather over much of the North and absence of Thursday's pressure to keep Thanksgiving dinner appointment probably figured in the toll. Also, today had the usual characteristics of workday occupation for perhaps a majority of Americans.

With only about half of the four-day holiday weekend over, it was too early to tell whether the final toll for the 102-hour period would exceed last year's 543, a record since the annual count was started in 1958.

Wet weather, snow in the Pacific Northwest and Midwest and rain in the East, created hazardous driving conditions in many areas. Highway travel, although not regarded as heavy as on other major national holidays, appeared above normal in most of the nation.

The latest of the multiple-death accidents were reported in Kansas and Iowa. A car rammed under a parked truck on the Kansas Turnpike near Wellington, Kan., Thursday night, killing Joan Judd, 24, of Blackwell, Okla., and three of her young children.

Two cars, loaded with teenagers, collided near Dodge, Iowa, returning from a wedding; reception crashed in separate accidents. Three boys were killed in one accident and in the second mishap one boy was killed.

The worst accident during the holiday thus far reported was near Olanta, S.C., where seven members of one family and the driver of a second car were killed in a head-on collision.

No estimate of traffic deaths for the Thanksgiving weekend was made by the National Safety Council. It said there is little extra long-distance travel for the holiday.

An Associated Press survey during a non-holiday weekend of 102 hours from Nov. 11 to Nov. 15 showed 468 traffic deaths. The record-low traffic death toll for a Thanksgiving holiday period was 442 in 1960.

Lions Auction Starts Here on Monday

The Hope Lions Club's 16th Annual auction will be held November 30, December 1st and 2nd at the former Duffie Hardware building on Second Street. Visitors are invited to come look over the items and take part in the auction.

The feature of the auction will be an automobile to be given away. It is a 1958 Ford in good condition with a retail value in excess of $300. The car was paid for by individual Lions who were paying off a membership contest pledge. The Lions received a big assist from James Gaines who sold them the car at well below the wholesale price in order to make the auction a success.

Here is how the car may be won. With each bid on an item you receive 10 points. Each purchase is worth 100 points. The person accumulating the most points over the three nights will win the car. There are three restrictions. The winner must be over 16 and produce a valid driver's license before being given possession and Hope Lions Club members and their wives are not eligible. This does not apply to other members of their families. The car will be parked in front of Duffie Hardware Building from Friday, November 27, through the auction.

The Lions Club goal is to provide 100 $20.00 baskets of food for deserving Hope families this Christmas. Lions L.F. Slatton and Harry Cagle are in charge of this year's auction which should prove the best of all time. Lions urge you to listen, bid, and buy on KXAR. . . 6 to 10 p.m. each night.

U.S. Embassy Attacked by Egyptian Mobs

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

CAIRO (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Lucius Battle delivered a formal protest to the Egyptian government today following a mob attack on the U.S. Embassy compound.

Screaming anti-American slogans, a mob of African students burned the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library and a Marine barracks in protest against the U.S.-Belgian rescue operation in the Congo.

The library, dedicated only a few days ago, was still smoldering this morning more than 12 hours after the students stormed over an iron rail fence to get into the compound, which houses half a dozen buildings.

No injuries were reported, however, and the main building housing the ambassador's office escaped with only a few broken windows.

Damage to the library, considered one of the two best foreign language libraries in Cairo, was estimated at $250,000.

Cairo newspapers said all the demonstrators were Congolese. Cairo is a haven for leftist opponents of the central Congolese government.

The Cairo incident was the most serious demonstration against the United States in a wave of hostile sentiment following the Congo airborne operation in which U.S. aircraft were used to carry the Belgian paratroopers.

At the Marine barracks, the demonstrators set bedding and furniture afire and hurled gasoline torches and flower pots.

"They came swarming in from everywhere," said the only Marine in the building. "I tried to block the door and they popped in the windows."

GP to Make Paper Bags at Crossett

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — Georgia-Pacific Corp. said today production of paper bags at its Pine Bluff plant will be ended in February and operations combined in a new plant here.

William C. Norman, vice president and general manager of the Crossett Division of the firm, said the move was being made to enable the company to operate more efficiently.

Georgia Pacific completed a modern 50,000-square-foot bag plant in August and a 23,000-square-foot addition is now under construction.

Several bag making machines from the Pine Bluff plant will be installed at Crossett.

Norman said consolidation at Crossett would eliminate costly handling and shipping of paper stocks produced at Crossett for grocery bag manufacture at Pine Bluff.

The new plant, he said, will enable the firm to offer a full line of grocery bags and sacks as well as special items.

Norman said employees at the Pine Bluff plant will be given first consideration for jobs at the expanded Crossett plant.

Jack Meadows, manager of the paper operations of the Crossett Division, said the new expansion at Crossett should be completed in about three months.

Production at Pine Bluff will be decreased gradually during that period, he said. Georgia Pacific purchased the Pine Bluff plant from Imperial Bag Co. in 1962, shortly before it acquired the Crossett Co. The plant occupies leased quarters at the Pine Bluff terminal.

U.S. Appears to Be Moving to Expansion of Viet Nam War as Settlement Dims

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor started today an intensive reappraisal of U.S. strategy in anti-Communist war in Viet Nam. The study may lead to a decision by President Johnson to broaden the war.

Taylor met with Rusk early this morning, beginning a schedule of talks to be climaxed by White House sessions with President Johnson and other decision makers next week.

The administration appeared to be moving reluctantly toward a cautious expansion of the conflict beyond South Viet Nam in the hope of improving prospects for a peaceful settlement.

Johnson and other top administration officials are reported to have divided feelings about Viet Nam strategy between sticking to confining the war almost entirely to South Viet Nam, and making some strikes to the north.

Taylor, who returned to Washington Thursday, is known to believe that the time for new decisions is at hand. Furthermore he sees some advantages in authorizing and promptly undertaking air strikes either against Communist supply lines from North Viet Nam to South Viet Nam through the neighboring kingdom of Laos, or against Communist concentration points for men and supplies in the north.

Taylor recently declared that the outcome of the conflict is now "very much in doubt."

But he said he thought attacks on targets in Red-held territory would probably make the Chinese and North Vietnamese Communist leadership realize that the conquest it seeks in the south will become too expensive because of impending damage in the north.

The ambassador is reported to believe that such attacks might thus compel the Hanoi regime to reconsider its policies and enter into negotiations on terms more favorable to South Viet Nam than are now considered possible.

Another benefit Taylor is believed to see in strikes to the north is that they might have a heartening effect upon military and anti-Communist elements in the south.

Government instability has been for months one of the most serious problems in South Viet Nam. Though Taylor praised the "courage and determination" of the new civilian premier, Tran Van Huong, authorities here say the situation will get increasingly desperate unless the new regime can demonstrate it can command and enlist support from such political powerful groups as students and Buddhists.

Against these benefits of a possible escalation, or step-up of the war, the President and his advisers must weigh the possibility that such moves may provoke responses from North Viet Nam's regular military forces and even from those of Communist China. The Soviet Union injected its own warning into the Vietnamese situation Thursday but failed to stir up any concern or even very much interest in government quarters here.

A statement by the Soviet news agency Tass declared that persons who "harbor adventurous plans" for Southeast Asia "should understand that the Soviet Union cannot remain indifferent to the fate of a fraternal Socialist country and is ready to render the necessary assistance."

Upon his arrival at Andrews Air Force Base Taylor denied reports which had preceded him here from Saigon that he would present a plan to President Johnson for extending military operations to the north and would resign unless Johnson accepts the plan.

"So far as I'm concerned I've enlisted in this war for the duration," Taylor said, implying that whether he stays on is not his decision but the President's.

Johnson and Taylor are expected to meet Sunday or Monday after the President returns from his extended visit to his Texas ranch. Advance word was that Johnson would play an active role in the discussions preceding any policy decisions.

Negro Arraigned in Rape-Slaying

HAMBURG, Ark. (AP) — James Williams, 34, Negro of Crossett, will be arraigned Monday before Circuit Judge G. B. Clavin for the rape-slaying of Mrs. Thomas Degges of Hamburg.

Williams was found without psychosis by State Hospital doctors in a mental test. He was returned to custody of Sheriff Guy Mormon of Ashley County. Williams was held in an undisclosed jail.

Mrs. Degges' body was found near her home in September. A 4-year-old son said a Negro man forced her into the trunk of his car and drove away, Mormon said.

According to Agriculture Department statistics there were only 1,224 bales of cotton ginned in Hempstead County up to November 1, 1964. This is compared with 2,044 bales ginned during the same period a year ago. Lafayette County has ginned 6,942 bales as compared to 13,635 last year at the same time.

According to Arkansas State Police records Hempstead County had 16 wrecks during the month of October with no fatalities. Howard County had three wrecks and one death. Lafayette County three and Nevada County five wrecks with no deaths resulting.

Elsewhere in today's edition is a tribute to the District 7-A champions, the Hope Bobcats, who even in winning have never been rated high in state standings by the so-called experts. This brings us to a summing up of the Hope-DeQueen game which the Bobcats won by a DeQueen sports writer. He said although Hope beat DeQueen the Bobcats would be defeated several times in District play. . . as we say, the so-called experts.

Penny Ann Franks Formby of Hope was one of 24 Henderson students invited to join the Arkansas Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Chi, national honorary scholastic society.

There will be a called meeting of the Hope Jaycees to discuss the Christmas party for the underprivileged children, at the First National Bank Community room at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Hundreds Still Missing, 61 Slain by Rebels

By KENNETH L. WHITING

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Snipers' bullets still whistled through Stanleyville today as government troops pushed across the Congo River after the main rebel force.

"Stanleyville is under control, but all resistance has not been eliminated," said an American Embassy spokesman.

"The city is virtually deserted. The Congolese have fled to the bush. But snipers are still active and you can easily get a bullet through your head."

Since the U.S.-Belgian airborne operation began Tuesday, at least 59 foreigners including three Americans have been slain by the Peking-backed rebels. The paratroopers rescued about 1,600 white hostages in Stanleyville and Paulis.

In Paulis, which was seized Thursday by Belgian paratroopers, about 100 whites awaited evacuation on U.S. C-130s. At least 170 foreigners were brought here from Paulis Thursday.

Belgian paratroopers were scouring an 18-mile radius around Paulis for other foreigners.

The U.S. spokesman said the evacuation of refugees from Stanleyville has been completed. The American planes brought a total of 1,070 refugees from Stanleyville and Paulis. Congolese and other aircraft have airlifted hundreds of others from the rebel zone.

The embassy said five Americans remained in rebel-controlled areas. They are Miss A. Chansler, who is believed to be about 18 miles from Paulis in the village of Eghila; W. McCaskey, last reported in Wamba; and Mrs. F. J. Cunningham and her two children in Titulo. All are connected with the Heart of Africa Mission of Fort Washington, Pa.

Other reports said several hundred whites of other nationalities were still missing in the northern Congo, and the Belgian paratroopers were planning other rescue missions before leaving the country this weekend.

Reliable reports said the paratroopers might drop at Bunia, on the eastern frontier, or Watsa, to the northeast, to save whites there from massacre at the hands of the rebels.

South of Stanleyville, rebels recaptured the tin mining town of Ponia, taken last week by the government troops on their march toward Stanleyville.

Violent protests against the Western powers continued in Communist and African capitals. In Cairo, hundreds of African students burned the U.S. Information Agency's John F. Kennedy Memorial Library and a Marine barracks in the U.S. Embassy compound. No one was hurt.

The U.S. and Belgian embassies were stoned in Nairobi, Kenya, and the U.S., British and Belgian embassies were attacked in Prague.

There was speculation that the rebels would take the offensive again when the Belgian paratroopers are withdrawn this weekend. Premier Moise Tshombe's white mercenaries and supporting Congolese army troops did not appear to have sufficient strength to consolidate the rapid gains they have made across a vast area of the northern Congo.

In addition to 38 white hostages reported killed in Stanleyville, the rebels battered at least 21 whites to death in Paulis, 250 miles northeast of Stanleyville, before a force of 267 Belgians seized the city Thursday after a brief skirmish in which one paratrooper was killed.

Also in keeping with the religious aspect of the Thanksgiving season was the program brought by Mrs. Gus Haynes. In her reflections on the history of the First Baptist Church of Hope the members found both inspiration and enjoyment.

100 Per Cent for United Way

B. N. Holt Photo

The Hempstead County United Fund received a nice boost toward its quota yesterday when Professor Will V. Rutherford, principal of the Yerger Schools, turned in more than $300 in cash and pledges to campaign chairman Guy Grigg. "This represents a 100 percent participation from all teachers, office personnel, bus drivers, lunchroom employees, janitors and all other salaried employees," said Mr. Grigg, "and we sincerely appreciate this effort on the part of Professor Rutherford and those who worked with him in this drive."

"The drive is coming along very good, but a number of workers still have not turned in their reports and those who have not done so are urged to get the job done as soon as possible so the drive can be ended before we get into the full swing of the Christmas Season," said Mr. Grigg.

All cash and pledges received during this drive are for use during the coming year and those funds will be disbursed to the following participating agencies: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Cerebral Palsy, Arkansas Arthritis Foundation, Arkansas Mental Health Association, U.S.O., Underprivileged Children, Cancer (local), Polio (local), Muscular Sclerosis (local), Heart (local), and local salaries and expenses. The last item amounts to approximately 2 percent of the total budget.

A progress report is being prepared and will be ready for release early next week showing amount pledged and paid toward the total goal.

"DEAR ABBY"

WHERE'S THE DISGRACE?

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My sister's employer died recently and he left our $850,000, thereby disgracing our whole family. She went to work for him when she was 22 and was his loyal employee for 31 years. She was well paid, but her work always came first and, although she was the prettiest girl in town, she never married. She was a good Christian woman, Abby, and there never was a breath of scandal about her.

When her employer died and it was learned that he had left half his estate to his wife and the other half to my sister, you can imagine what the gossip had to say! My sister had social security and a retirement policy, so she didn't need the fortune he left her at the expense of her reputation. How can we clear her of the suspicion that was cast on her good name?

NO CITY, PLEASE

Dear No City: Confidentially, I think YOU are contributing suspicion where none is warranted. A bequest of $850,000 reflects nothing but favor on a "good Christian woman" about whom there never was a breath of scandal.

Dear Abby: My husband never misses your column, so you would be doing me a great favor if you printed what you think of a husband who asks women to select his wife's Christmas gift for him. After 15 years of selecting my gifts personally, he turned to other women to make his selection for him. I'd be satisfied with a single hankie as long as I knew he chose it for me himself.

SENECA FALLS

Dear Seneca: I hope you won't feel short-changed if your husband presents you with a periscope Christmas because I am printing your letter along with your wish. Merry Christmas!

Dear Abby: I am 15 years old

Just Don't Talk About the Coeds

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — Henry Osahon, 27, a student from Nigeria, wrote in the Liverpool University newspaper last week that the university had "the largest collection of ugly, shabbily dressed and ill behaved girls in Britain."

and a little on the chubby side. Everything I touch, I either drop, break, or spill. I bump into odors and people and other things. My mother thinks it is because my bangs are always in my eyes and I can't see. My father says my coordination is off. What is the matter with me?

CLUMSY

Dear Clumsy: Many girls (and boys, too) your age have the same problem and for the same combination of reasons. Practice poise. Try to move gracefully and be aware of what you are doing every moment. It will soon become part of your natural behavior. Try it. It really works.

Dear Abby: The letter signed "PLAYING SAFE" hit home with us. We, too, had safety belts in our cars. Front and back! When some of our friends ignored them, saying they were "too much trouble," we would reply, "While you are in our car, WE are responsible for YOUR safety; so either buckle up or walk!" Real friends do not resent it.

tary spokesman reported today. Details on the action, 410 miles north of Saigon, were sketchy. The fighting began Thursday and continued today.

Navy Favored by Touchdown to Beat Army

By BOB HOOBING Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Navy is one touchdown favorite to defeat an Army team still living a nightmare in the 65th service football game Saturday also billed as the third war of the "S" men — senior quarterback Roger Staubach and Rolfe Stichweh.

Shorn of bowl possibilities national ranking or even a club with a winning record, the contest more than ever is the beginning and end of the season for the participants.

Although the President will not be in the crowd of 100,000 at John F. Kennedy Stadium, Luci Baines Johnson will represent the First Family.

A healthy Staubach is the chief reason the momentum-riding Middies are the choice to achieve an unprecedented sixth straight victory and even the colorful series Army currently leads 30-29-5. Two years ago Jolly Roger ran and passed for four touchdowns against the exasperated Soldiers.

The Cadets can't shake the memory of 1963 when the final gun found them two yards short of what would have been the season's biggest upset. Navy won 21-15 behind fullback Pat Donnelly's three touchdowns but observers came away singing the praises of Stichweh.

Never in the series dating from 1890 have individuals been more important to their teams than these scrambling field generals who are fast friends off the field.

Each suffered a leg injury at the outset of the campaign and Staubach couldn't even make the trip for one contest while he was severely limited in several others. Both are 100 per cent physically now.

Staubach, from Cincinnati, has completed 107 of 183 passes for 1,021 yards. He also has Houdini-like qualities as a runner when his underpinnings are sound.

Stichweh, from Williston Park, N.Y., is a good passer and great runner, who has accounted for 1,354 yards in all offensive departments this fall, a school record.

Just Pretend He Isn't Really There

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia 76ers may have come up with a new defense against Wilt Chamberlain — they pretend he isn't there.

Wilt poured in 63 points — high for the National Basketball Association season — against Philadelphia Thursday night but the 76ers capitalized on the frigid shooting of his San Francisco teammates and whipped the Warriors 128-117. It was the 76ers' third straight victory and the Warriors' sixth consecutive setback.

In Thursday's only other game, the Bob Pettit-less St. Louis Hawks overcame a 21-minute cold spell and bulldozed the Boston Celtics 110-98 with a 40-point final period.

and time in the last 21 years it has faced its arch-rival with less than a winning record. Navy is 3-5-1 but is 2-0-1 against common foes, all of whom beat the Cadets.

Miscues Help Texas, Tide Post Victories

By MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama and Texas didn't wait for their Orange Bowl meeting to spring a surprise.

They unveiled a crucial play — the same one — in closing out their regular football season schedules with victories Thursday, Alabama trimming Auburn 21-14 and Texas whipping Texas A&M 26-7.

Following Alabama's 10th victory without a defeat, the Crimson Tide formally accepted an Orange Bowl bid everyone knew they already had received. Texas, 9-1, had accepted an invitation nearly two weeks ago.

In using the surprise play, second-ranked Alabama had help from Auburn's Mike Alford while Texas, No. 5 in the nation, received aid from Tom Murray of Texas A&M. Both center-Alford and Murray, started the whole thing.

On fourth- and down-and-punt situations, Alford and Murray snapped the ball back over the punters' heads. In Alabama's case, it resulted in the first touchdown of the game. For Texas, the errant play brought a tie-breaking safety that opened the way for a 19-point second half.

Auburn's Jim Kilgore was set to punt in the first quarter when the ball sailed over his head. He chased it back into the end zone and fell on it, but the ball squirted away and Steve Bowman dropped on it for a touchdown.

In the third quarter of the traditional Texas battle, A&M's Phil Scoggin was back to punt when the snapback got by him. He recovered the ball but couldn't get out of the end zone.

There was only a handful of other Thanksgiving Day games. Tulsa defeated Wichita 21-7, Virginia Tech swamped Virginia Military 35-13. William and Mary walloped Richmond 33-13 and an East All-Star team defeated the West 19-12 in the Gem Bowl at Erie, Pa.

The college season all but fades completely Saturday with two of the season's biggest game on the schedule. Army and Navy meet in their traditional rivalry while Notre Dame tries to wrap up the national championship by making Southern California its 10th consecutive victim.

Also on tap are Miami-Florida, Georgia Tech-Georgia, Tennessee-Vanderbilt, Duke-Tulane, Oklahoma-Oklahoma State, Rice-Baylor, Texas Christian-Southern Methodist and Arizona State-Arizona.

Henderson and Ouachita Draw

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—Henderson and Ouachita battled to a 6-6 tie in their annual Thanksgiving Day football clash.

The verdict gave the Reddies fifth place in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference standings and Ouachita wound up sixth.

Charlie Williams' 30-yard sprint got the Figgers' touchdown, but the conversion attempt failed in the third period. Quarterback Larry Walker passed to end Mike Steelman on an 18-yard touchdown play for Henderson in the fourth period. Guard Don Miller blocked the extra point kick by Troy Tison.

Picking Winner in Saturday's Grid Games

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland can wrap up the Eastern Conference title in the National Football League Sunday but don't count on it. Both the Browns and runnerup St. Louis Cardinals figure to win their games and the race will continue at least until their Dec. 6 meeting at St. Louis.

Buffalo and San Diego, the two division leaders in the American Football League, have Sunday off because they played Thanksgiving Day in San Diego. They appear headed toward a title game Dec. 26 at Buffalo unless the Boston Patriots catch the Bills.

When both Detroit and San Diego went down in the holiday games, the record dropped to 72-42-7 for the season (45-23-5 in the NFL, 27-14-2 in the AFL). Only nine games Sunday so let's take another shot.

Cleveland 31, Philadelphia 21—Browns still driving hard toward first conference championship since 1957. Jim Brown always has big day against Eagles but Frank Ryan will find Eagles pass defense tougher than 28-20 Sept. 27 victory. St. Louis 24, Pittsburgh 21—Cards must win to stay alive, but have been in and outers lately. Steelers broke five-game losing streak last week with emphatic 44-17 win over Giants with help of New York fumbles.

Washington 24, New York 17—Redskins get even for 13-10 defeat in September when Charley Taylor's fumble lost game. Sonny Jurgensen sharp and Giant deep defense hurting.

Green Bay 21, Dallas 17—Packers' running game meets match in Cowboys' rushing defense, but Bart Starr's arm should swing the balance. Green Bay beat Dallas in Aug. 25 exhibition 35-3.

Minnesota 24, Los Angeles 21—Vikings and Rams still have a chance at second place and runnerup bowl. Both tough on rushing defense but vulnerable to pass.

Baltimore 28, San Francisco 17—This isn't as easy as it looks. Colts just clinched last week and pressure is off.

AFL
Boston 27, Houston 21—Pats' blitz will bother George Blanda. Oilers' leaky defense too much

Lions Order Bear and Go Real Hungry

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

That new dish the National Football League dumped on the Detroit Lions' Thanksgiving table was no turkey.

The Lions, who had spent their last 13 Thanksgiving afternoons entertaining the Green Bay Packers, ordered Bear Thursday and went hungry. Chicago's dethroned NFL champion won the annual holiday game 27-21 on Roger Lee's 17-yard field goal with less than two minutes to play.

The loss knocked Detroit out of second place in the Western Conference. Baltimore, which already has clinched the Western title, seeks its 11th straight victory Sunday at San Francisco and Cleveland, leading the Eastern Conference by 1 1/2 games, plays host to Philadelphia.

Green Bay is at Dallas, St. Louis at Pittsburgh, Los Angeles at Minnesota and New York at Washington in Sunday's other games.

The Bears-Lions meeting was their first on Thanksgiving Day since 1949. Detroit and Green Bay had filled the holiday bill after 1950 — when the New York Yankees visited the Motor City — and the Lions held a 9-3-1 series edge over the Packers.

Green Bay, however, pulled out this year and a rotating schedule, led off by the Bears, was set up.

Rudy Bukich, Chicago's rifle-handicap. Pats must win to stay close to Buffalo. Houston on eight-game losing binge.

Oakland 28, Denver 14—It may not be as easy as the 40-7 game Oct. 25 but Raiders are clicking under Cotton Davidson, and Broncos have lost five of six.

Kansas City 24, New York 21—Chiefs still have long shot chance of catching San Diego.

Boston Comes From Behind for Victory

By HAL ROCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Patriots, trailing Buffalo's Bills by 1 1/2 games in the American Football League's

They will meet over 15 rounds in the 35,000-seat El Campin Stadium in this 3,000-foot high Colombian capital.

Jofre's record is 15 victories and three draws in 40 fights. He has 35 knockouts to his credit. Caraballo has a 42-0-1 record, including 20 knockouts.

Eastern Division race, go into Sunday's game at Houston with the growing suspicion that these Bills are for real.

Buffalo, seemingly beaten with less than seven minutes to play in Thursday's game at San Diego, rallied for 13 points producing an important 27-24 victory. The Bills were down 24-14 when they started their comeback — moments after losing the ball on downs on the San Diego one.

Linebacker Mike Stratton, who played a vital role in the Bills' rally, burst into the San Diego end zone and spilled quarterback John Hadl on the first play after the Chargers had halted Buffalo's march. The safety made it 24-16.

Charley Warner than returned

Hadl's free kick 40 yards to the San Diego 18 and five plays later Buffalo quarterback Daryle Lamonica went in for the touchdown bringing the Bills within two points.

Buffalo's attempted two-point conversion failed but the Bills got a second chance when the Chargers were penalized for holding. This time, Lamonica went in for the two-pointer, tying the score.

Stratton then picked off a Hadl pass — the Bills' fifth interception of the day — on the Buffalo 44. Four carries by Cookie Gilchrist helped move the ball into field-goal range and rookie kicker Pete Gogolak booted the 33-yard field goal that won it for the Bills.

Thought For The Day

A man who finds no satisfaction in himself, seeks for it in vain elsewhere. - Rochefoucauld said it.

Calendar Of Events

The Mysterious Gospel Singers will appear at Bethel A.M.E. Church Sunday, November 29, at 2:30 p.m. instead of 7:30 as previously announced.

The ladies of Lonoke Baptist Church will present an unusual "Candlelight Service" Sunday night, November 29 at 7:30.

This program is being sponsored by the Mission Society, Mrs. A. S. Walker, President; Miss Willie Mae Davenport, chairman. Mrs. Cleaster Randle, leading with speech - "Lead Kindly Light." You and yours are invited to attend.

The Lonoke Sunday School, under the thoughtful leadership of Mrs. Ella Robinson and C. G. Carmichael, is growing weekly. The Ladies' Bible Class No. 3, Mrs. Louise Daniels, teacher, led Sunday with a financial report of $25.00.

The classes, with dedicated teachers, are really giving more to the Lord's work with the goal, "every member of the church enrolled in some class by 1965."

Sunday, November 22nd, was Men's Day at the Union Baptist Church, Hot Springs.

The Lonoke Baptist Church choir with members and friends traveled in a caravan of cars to this service. Dinner was served by the members of Union. Rev. Walter White, Pastor of Lonoke, delivered a powerful message, using as a subject, "God and Man in the Drama of Life."

The Story: Close on the trail of a postal robber yuspect, Inspector Balke Morga narrowly escapes assassination.

XVII

I got into the car with the detectives and they drove me to my hotel. On the way, they phoned in information on the case. It was six o'clock when I case. It was six o'clock when I climbed out of the car and entered the hotel. I went straight to my room, left word to be called at 10 and tumbled into bed. I think I was asleep before my head hit the pillow.

The phone brought me out of it at ten o'clock. I phoned room service and ordered some breakfast. I took a fast shower and shaved by the time I was through, my breakfast was there.

I had a cigarette with my third cup of coffee, then got dressed. I called Dundy at the post office.

"I thought you'd be in early this morning," he said.

"I was busy until six this morning. Now I have to go down to Lieutenant McGruder and make a statement."

"What happened?"

"I saw my man about midnight, then lost him three minutes later. But I thought I had a good lead. While I was following it up, someone tried to kill me."

"I knew I should have gone with you," he exclaimed.

"I'll come in as soon as I finish with the police." I hung up and left my room. Downstairs, I got into a cab and took it down to police headquarters.

I asked for Lieutenant McGruder. After making a phone call, the desk sergeant told me to go on back.

The lieutenant was in the same position as when I'd seen him the day before. In fact, he looked as if he hadn't moved since then. He glanced up as I came in and grunted.

"Ben expecting you," he said.

"I see you were busy last night."

"Busier than I expected to be," I said. I sat down in the chair next to his desk and told my story.

"Sounds like you were lucky," he said. "Who's the stripper?"

"Calls herself Ducky Drake."

He nodded. "I know her. She doesn't have a record. You think she's involved?"

"I don't know," I admitted.

"I think she's been seeing Emery, but she may not know where he's staying. He's fairly shrewd, and I doubt if he'd give too much information to a girl he's just met. Did you get anything out of the taxi?"

"I don't think so. It was stolen about three hours earlier. The only prints in the front were those of the driver. They were blurred, so the man who drove it off, probably wore gloves. Lots of prints in the back, but they were probably all from passengers. Since there hadn't been much mileage put on it, they probably stole it for that one job."

I took a taxi to the post office building and went in to see George Dundy. The stack of papers on his desk was much smaller.

"It's practically lunchtime," I said. "Let's go to some nice quiet place, have lunch and talk."

The restaurant was a small one with a French menu. We took a table in a far corner and ordered two martinis.

"I have some news for you," he said when the waitress had deposited the drinks and left. "The number of government checks stolen from mailboxes is a little larger than we knew yesterday."

"How much?"

"In the neighborhood of $20,000."

"A nice neighborhood," I agreed.

"And, of course, there may be more. Not to mention your money orders from New York."

"Any information on the cashing of the checks?"
